

CARIBBEAN EPIDEMIOLOGY CENTRE (CAREC)

Assistant Lab Coordinator/Adviser Expanded Programme on Immunization (EPI)

The Caribbean Epidemiology Centre is seeking a highly skilled, experienced Medical Laboratory Practitioner to support the EPI laboratory programme activities.

The successful candidate will be required to provide hands-on technical support to the EPI Laboratory Coordinator/Adviser. He or she will also assist in advising and/or coordinating activities for the implementation of effective laboratory interventions at CAREC, in CAREC member countries and other network laboratories in the Americas. Overseas travel is required.

Minimum Combination of Academic Learning & Experience:

Fellowship in Clinical Virology from CASMET or equivalent OR

B.Sc. in a Biological Science with 5 years experience in a clinical public health laboratory as a technologist specializing in clinical virological techniques/procedures.

Equivalent Combination of Experience & Training:

Diploma in Clinical Virology from CASMET or equivalent with 3 years experience in a clinical public health laboratory as a technologist specializing in clinical virological techniques/procedures.

A copy of the Job Description is available on request from the CAREC HR Department.

Applications should be addressed to: The Manager
Human Resource Department
Caribbean Epidemiology Centre (CAREC)
P.O. Box 164
PORT OF SPAIN
FAX: 1-868-628-9140
E-MAIL: hrdept@carec.paho.org

E-mailed applications should be labeled "Assistant Lab Coordinator –EPI" in the subject line.

CLOSING DATE: October 20, 2006